1771 N. Delilah Street
Corona, CA

Brookfield Properties is pleased to announce the addition of 1771 N. Delilah Street in Corona, CA to its U.S. logistics portfolio.

The 50,910 square foot freestanding warehouse is located in the Inland Empire, one of the most desired logistics markets in the country. The building is fully leased and offers I-91 freeway frontage, a large secured yard with drive around access, and dock high loading. The highly desirable location and major freeway access allows Tenants to service both the Inland Empire and Orange County markets.

Southern California is a target Global Gateway market for our growing Logistics business, and we continue to seek opportunities for both acquisition and development. Over the past twelve months, we have added ten new properties totaling over 2.6 million square feet to the portfolio, bringing our Southern California portfolio to 33 assets comprising 5.4 million square feet.

Brookfield Properties is a fully integrated, global real estate services company, providing industry-leading development and portfolio management capabilities across the real estate investment strategies of Brookfield Asset Management - a global alternative asset manager with approximately $550 billion in assets under management. Over the past twelve months, we have added over $1.4 billion of Logistics properties to our U.S. portfolio.
